tamer kind. 'Possum meat is deceptive. "' 'Possum meat Am good and sweet,' as the old negro song runs, and yet it guest of Mr. Thomas Hendricks and family, No. 1674 Hall place. She will remain who are capable of distinguishing between carefully prepared and well-cooked 'pos-sum meat and the meat of a very young pig. Baked with sweet potatoes and served with the usual condiments it is almost impossible for a man whose taste is not keen to an extraordinary degree to tell pig from 'possum. 'Coon meat is different. There can be no mistake about the meat of this It is strong, awfully strong, and no amount of seasoning, no amount of flavoring, will rob it of that taste of wildness which is peculiarly its own. It is not a bad taste when you get used to it. I rather like it if it is properly prepared. There are very few persons who know how to prepare and cook a 'coon, however, and I suppose this is because the meat is rarely found except in more remote sec-
